SCENE 1- DR EGGMAN'S LAB

---

It is dark as bits of machine flash and beep as they display all kind of data. A Blue beam of light appears. Inside it, the figure of Metal Sonic is visible as Dr Eggman watches.

Eggman: "Hyper Metal Sonic, the only thing left is to capture his essential life data, then you will be complete!"

Eggman: "When you awaken, it will be time!"

Metal Sonic's eyes start to glow.

SCENE 2- SONIC'S ISLAND HOME

---

Sonic's Island Home. A Small flying vessel starts to move closer with dark smoke coming out of it's worn Engine. Sonic is relaxing in the sun on a chair under a parasol.

Tails: "Sonic!"

Tails comes running along carrying something in his hand.

Tails: "It's Finally done! See, isn't it great? It's a jet-propelled Body board! Come on, Sonic. Don't you want to try it too?"

Sonic: "No thanks"

Tails: "All right, I'll try it myself!"

Tails heads off to the shore to try out his new Body board, leaving Sonic to listen to his music.

Sonic: "I guess Tails is still just a little kid."

Tails: "Yahoo"

As Tails and the Body board zoom past Sonic, it again splashes him with water. Tails starts to show off by performing a few trick stances on the board.

Tails: "Come on, Sonic! It's Okay if you can't swim! You should give it a try!"

Sonic: "Just don't get cocky and run into something"

Almost out of hearing, Sonic detects a noise and his ear twitches.

Sonic: "I must be hearing things"

He goes back into a state of rest. But it isn't long before he hears something again.

Tails: "Wake up, Sonic! Come on, Sonic!"

Believing Tails is just trying to annoy him or get him to ride on his new body board yet again, Sonic gets fed up with the noise and shouts.

Sonic: "Shut up, Tails!"

But it turns out, a Rocket ship is right on Tails' tails. It knocks him off his body board and zooms right over Sonic's head, knocking him and everything flying. Tails flies over to see how Sonic is, but dust covers the scene.

Tails: "Sonic... Are you all right, Sonic?"

When the Dust clears, Tails sees Sonic standing there, looking a little annoyed.

Sonic: "I'm Fine, but who was that?"

They look at the Rocket Ship, an old Owl is flying it, looking though his thick glasses as he plays no attention to where he is going.

Old Man: "Sonic, how have you been?"

Back on the Shore, Sonic sighs.

Sonic: "Oh no, not that old man again! I'll pass on this one."

Deciding to not bother, Sonic goes and starts to tidying up the mess created by the old man's rocket.

Tails: "Sonic, we've got to hurry up and do something!"

Sonic: "You're the one who can fly, why don't you go do something?"

Tails is a little fed up with this and shouts at Sonic, knocking him over.

Tails: "Sonic, you idiot!"

Tails decides to go and help the old man himself and flies after the rocket ship.

Tails: "Fine, I can take care of this all by myself!"

Tails gets closer and closer to the rocket ship and catches up with the old man.

Tails: "Mister! Mister!"

Old Man: "Tails, it's you! It's nice to see you again. I have some urgent business with Sonic. That's why I'm here."

Tails: "Mister, this isn't the time to worry about that. Your Rocket's on fire!"

The Old Man turns around to look at the flaming engine of his rocket.

Old Man: "What? No wonder it's getting so warm in here!"

Tails boosts his speed in an attempt to bridge the final gap between him and the rocket's engine.

Tails: "Just hold on! I'll fix it somehow!"

The engine gives off a small explosion and Tails is sent spinning backwards. He regains his balance and decides to try again.

Tails: "I'm not finished yet!"

As Tails goes after the ship, it yet again knocks Sonic to the ground as it flies right over him. When it starts to level off again, Tails is able to catch up and land on one of its wings.

Old Man: "Hey, you're pretty good at this, Tails!"

Tails: "I got some practice in earlier on my body-board."

Old Man: "That's amazing!"

Tails: "Mister, Up ahead! Look out!"

Old Man: "What are you talking about? Let's see."

The Old Man looks forward through his glasses to see a large rock face getting closer and closer as the Rocket zooms out of control. Tails calls out.

Tails: "SONIC!"

Hearing them, Sonic turns around to see what is about to happen. He rushes over to the rocket as fast as he can, going from Run into a figure eight Dash before a complete spin and gets to the ship just as it crashes into the rock face. Out of the dust, Sonic comes flying out, holding Tails and the Old Man.

Tails: "Thank you, Sonic!"

Sonic Winks. When they have landed and made it along the beach, Sonic tries to talk to the Old Man.

Sonic: "Old man! Hey, Old man!"

Sonic picks up a near by crab and places it closer to the old man. Tails giggles and it walks over and clips the old man before walking off again.

Old Man: "Ouch!"

Sonic: "Old man, you should stop flying those dangerous things."

Old Man: "What are you talking about, Sonic? I know I'm a little older now, but back in my heyday I won the speed Races on Planet Freedom all the time. Believe me, I was pretty popular with the ladies back then too."

Tails: "Mister, didn't you say you had some urgent business?"

Old Man: "Oh, right. It's a real emergency.. It's the President. he wanted..."

Unable to remember the rest of the message, the Old Man starts to Panic. He appears to calm down but still can't seem to remember the message. Sonic decides to try and help him out.

Sonic: "He wants us to come to the Presidential Palace right away?"

Old Man: "Right! That was it! Please hurry!"

Sonic: "Old man, you could have just called to tell us that."

Old Man: "Oh, yeah, I guess I could've done that."

Sonic: "Old man, take care of the place while we're gone!"

Old Man: "I understand!"

The Old Man just stands there waving and facing in the completely wrong direction.

Sonic: "I don't think so... Let's go Tails!"

Tails turns on all the planes systems, lights light up, screens display flight information and the Propeller starts to spin around faster and faster. The Plane Zooms along the runway and into flight, heading for the Presidential Palace. Back on the beach, the Old man just carries on waving.

Old Man: "Bon Voyage!"

SCENE 3- THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE

---

On another Island of the Land of the Sky, Sonic & Tails Arrive at the Presidential Palace and head into the Presidents Office to meet him. The Presidents chair is facing the Window, away from the door.

Sonic: "Mr. President, What's the urgent business?"

The Chair turns around to face the two guests and it reviles it's true occupier.

Eggman: "Right, the business. It's been a long time, hasn't it, Sonic, Tails"

Tails: "It's Doctor Eggman!"

Eggman: "Please accept a small token of my gratitude for coming all this way."

A few of Eggman's robots appear behind Sonic & Tails and open start to fire. In no time at all, Sonic and Tails move out of the way and slash the Robots into bits.

Sonic: "That's a funny way to show your gratitude."

Sonic goes to spin to attack Doctor Eggman but a voice calls out for him to stop.

President: "Don't do it, Please!"

Sonic stops and turns to see that Doctor Eggman has captured the President and his Daughter, Seira. They are being held under close guard by a number of Eggman's Robots.

President: "Sonic, for the sake of my daughter and everyone else, listen to him!"

Tails: "Eggman You kidnapped them so you could take over South Island, didn't you?"

Doctor Eggman just laughs and jumps over the desk, to the floor on the other side.

Eggman: "Do you think, really think I would do something that underhanded?"

Bots: "Of Course!"

Eggman falls to the ground and then gets up.

Eggman: "Listen, Sonic. This concerns all of Planet Freedom, So you'd better listen to everything I have to say."

Sonic: "No way."

Eggman: "Don't you care what happens to pretty, young Seira?"

As Eggman moves closer to Seira, one of the bots brings his spikes closer to her, showing Sonic that he has no choice.

Seira: "Help me, Papa!"

President: "Seira! Sonic, please listen to what Eggman has to say!"

Sonic: "I guess I don't have a choice. Go ahead and talk, Eggman."

Doctor Eggman brings up a holographical image of Planet Freedom Before starting to talk.

Eggman: "Really, Sonic? As both of you are aware, Planet Freedom is made up of two separate Dimensions. The outer world, the one you live in is known as the land of the Sky."

Sonic: "We already know all that"

Eggman: "Quiet! Just Shut up! And the inner dimension is known as the land of Darkness. I live peacefully in the inner dimension where I have created a high-tech city called Eggmanland. Recently, a man who calls himself the God of Destruction arrived: Black Eggman! I don't know where he came from but he attacked Eggmanland with a battalion of Robots. They completely conquered us. Now, there is no place down there for me to live in Eggmanland. Black Eggman found the complex where the high voltage electricity is stored. he jammed the Egg generator, causing it to run wild. According to my calculations, if the Egg generator isn't stopped by sunrise tomorrow, there will be a giant explosion!"

Doctor Eggman hears something and looks around. Everyone has fallen asleep during his

Eggman: "Fine! But don't blame me when this happens!"

He 'pops' Image of Planet freedom blows up in his face, leaving him a little shocked but waking everyone up.

President: "What Can we do to stop this, Eggman?"

Eggman: "Someone has to get through all of Black Eggman's Traps. Then he has to get into Eggmanland and stop that Generator! And it's the fastest one here that should do it!"

Sonic: "Forget about it! You're the one that created that stupid contraption in the first place, why should I have to clean up after you?"

The President is a little worried by Sonic's statement and breaks free from his guards to rush over to him.

President: "Sonic! Please do it! South island.... No, the Entire planet is depending on you!"

Not believing her father can convince Sonic, Seira runs over to join him.

Seira: "Sonic, I don't care what happens to Eggman or papa, But please, do this for both of us!"

Sonic jumps down off the desk onto the floor, still not wanting to go.

Sonic: "When Eggman Speaks, 99 times out of 100, he's lying!"

Tails jumps down to join his friend.

Tails: "But what if this is that one other time?"

Seira: "Sonic!"

President: "Sonic!"

Sonic: "Fine, I'll do it."

Tails: "Sonic..."

Doctor Eggman goes over to tails and puts something on his wrist that looks like a watch.

Eggman: "Tails, take this with you."

Tails: "What is it?"

Eggman: "It's a navigator. It will guide you to Eggmanland using the shortest Route, as long as you keep it with you."

Tails: "Thank you Eggman."

Sonic: "Come on Tails!"

Sonic & Tails head out on the Tornado towards the Land of Darkness. Sonic is yet again on the wings and Tails is flying, using Doctor Eggman's Navigator to help guide him to the entrance they are looking for. Sonic is getting a little bored from the uneventful journey so far.

Sonic: "Tails, do you really trust that weird little gadget the Eggman gave you? Knowing him, he might have put bomb in there."

Tails: "Doctor Eggman is the only one that knows how to get to Eggmanland. We don't have any other choice but to trust this thing."

Sonic: "Guess you're right. Even more importantly, I hope that the president and Seira are all right."

SCENE 5- THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE

Meanwhile, Back at the Palace, Doctor Eggman and Seira are playing a Computer Fighting Game. Though the Seira Character puts up a bit of a fight, Eggman easily beats her, leading to the young girl being very upset.

Seira: "No, no, no, I don't like it when you win every time! All right, One more time!"

Eggman: "That's enough! Give up! We've played a hundred times!"

Seira: "I'll stop being your hostage."

Eggman: "All right, we'll keep playing."

Seira laughs as she is able to twist Eggman around her finger. While back on the Tornado, nothing is happening as they are searching for the Entrance to the land of Darkness. Back at the Palace, However, Seira and Eggman are coming to the end of there game. It's no use and Seira loses yet again and she is upset again.

Seira: "No, no, no, You won again! Fine! I quit. I want to go for a drive."

Eggman: "Absolutely not!"

Seira: "No, No! I want to go for a Drive!"

As Seira carries on with her demand, Something huge crashes though the wall of the Office and a hatch way opens up, reviling a Cockpit of some kind

President: "How did this get here?"

Seira: "You rock, Eggman! I get to drive first!"

Eggman: "Don't touch that! No, wait! Don't play with that! Stop it, Seira!"

Seira continues to press the Buttons and the hatch way closes, before long, the machine heads of to parts unknown, leaving the president in a state of distress

President: "No, Stop that! Seira!"

The President is left alone in his office with only Eggman's Robots. The smallest one holds up a sign saying 'Goodbye Seira'.

SCENE 6- THE TORNADO

---

While this is going on, the Tornado starts to hit a cloudy area with some turbulence. Tails controls the plane as best he can and as they get closer, Sonic & Tails see a black swirling vortex in front of them.

Sonic: "That must be the Entrance to the Land of Darkness!"

The closer they get to the mass, the rougher the wind becomes and Tails has to use all his skill to keep the plane as level as possible.

Tails: "We're Getting some bad turbulence here so Hang on, Sonic!"

Tails gets the plane ready to dive into the Vortex and calls out to Sonic.

Tails: "All right, Here we go!"

The Tornado dives in, head first, Sonic holds on to the plane's wings with all his might, almost falling off.

Tails: "Hang on, Sonic! We're almost out of here!"

Sonic: "Okay!"

As the plane travels deeper and deeper into the vortex, until finally, it makes it out the other side. Tails tries to keep control of the plane but it skims the surface of a lake and bounces a few times before hitting the shore hard and flipping over onto it's top. When everything settles down, there is silence.

Sonic: "Tails!"

Sonic begins to crawl out of the wreckage, shortly followed by Tails. Never seem to have any real harm

Sonic: "Tails, are you all right?"

Tails: "I'm fine, but I'm worried about the tornado!"

Sonic: "So, this is the Land of Darkness"

Tails looks at his wrist and checks the navigator

Tails: "Eggmanland should be straight ahead!"

Sonic: "All right! Let's Hurry!"

SCENE 7- THE LAND OF DARKNESS

---

The Pair head off though the terrain of the Land of Darkness. As they go, they have to avoid Spike Traps, defeat a Crawlton Badnik and finally, get attacked by a squad of BuzzBomber Badniks

Sonic: "Tails, doesn't something seam a little strange? I think Eggman Purposely picked the route with the most traps!"

Tails: "But this really is the quickest way to the generator! There's even a warp zone right up ahead!"

Sonic: "Let's get moving!"

As they pick up speed, they enter into the vortex of the Warp Zone, Swirling lights surround them as they head towards a bright light and come out into a strange city full of tall buildings, clearly decaying for many years. Sonic & Tails start to walk, looking around at the weird sight before them

---

SCENE 7- THE ANCIENT RUINS

---

Sonic: "What is this place?"

Tails: "Let me check"

Tails raises his wrist to check what the navigator has to say on the matter

Tails: "We just exited the warp Zone, so this should be... it says these are ancient ruins."

Sonic: "Ancient ruins? These?"

They carry on walking though the empty streets, looking at the sights of the dead city.

Sonic: "I never knew the Land of Darkness had any of this."

Tails: "But Eggmanland is supposed to be really near. Let's go somewhere high and see if we can

Sonic: "Let's Go!"

They climb up the outside of a tall building to get a better view of the area. As they look out, they see that the ground is lowering into the ocean below.

Sonic: "The ruins are sinking right into the ocean!"

Tails: "Sonic, I bet it's because the egg Generator is out of control and causing reactions under the ground!"

Sonic: "Right! We should hurry!"

As they watch the sight of the city from above, there is a sudden bolt of lightning and Tails, scared, clings onto Sonic.

Tails: "I'm afraid of lighting!"

Back on ground Level, the pair rush along the streets, Sonic running and Tails flying, towards the location of Eggmanland.

Sonic: "Tails, we just have to go straight ahead, right?"

Tails checks the navigator again to confirm the directions.

Tails: "That's what it says"

In the distance, a pin point of light shines brightly and gets closer and closer until it hits them with a loud explosion, knocking Sonic and Tails back a bit and creating a hole in the road. Lighting flashes again as a Black shape moves closer and closer. Sonic gets ready to fight while Tails is afraid of what is coming.

Tails: "That has to be Black Eggman!"

Black Eggman: "That is correct Black Eggman. congratulatory on eluding traps and making all the way here."

Sonic: "We don't have time to play your little games! Get out of our way!"

As Sonic talks, Tails tries to copy Sonic's poses to stand up to the huge mass of Black Eggman, how is unimpressed at the display.

Black Eggman: "I don't think so!"

Opening his cloak, Black Eggman reviles his hand gun and starts to fire at Sonic and Tails but they easily dodge his blasts and start to taunt his actions.

Black Eggman: "Hold still!"

Sonic spins into Black Eggman head, hoping to do some damage but instead hurts his foot and limps off

Black Eggman: "You fool, his arm is made of a super polymer!"

Tails appears on Black Eggman's face and Evil Robotic form tried to hit him, but Tails quickly moves out of the way leaving Black Eggman's fist to hit himself hard.

Black Eggman: "Ouch! Ouch! You..."

Sonic and Tails laugh at the actions of the slow moving enemy and when he recovers, Black Eggman tries to shot them again but they disappear and reappear behind an old bus on a side street. Black Eggman tries to shot them again but he is unsure of there true location.

Black Eggman: "Where are you little brats hiding? Come out here!"

Sonic: "We don't have time to mess around with this guy! Which way to Eggmanland?"

Tails: "Let me check..."

Inputting some information into his wrist navigator, Tails checks for the direction to go in and then points to a near by highway.

Tails: "That way! It's past that highway!"

Sonic: "Good! Let's go, Tails!"

Tails: "Okay, Sonic!"

As Black Eggman still looks around for Sonic and Tails, Sonic and Tails move towards the Highway before Sonic calls his attention, with Tails taunting him, both believing they are at a safe distance.

Sonic: "Black Eggman, You slow poke!"

Black Eggman: "What?"

Sonic: "We know you can't keep up right now, so we'll just have to finish this game later."

Black Eggman's cloak rips apart revealing two large bat like wings. From behind, a back mounted jet engine starts up and he starts to fly after them.

Sonic&Tails: "No way!"

Sonic: "This is bad!"

Sonic: "I didn't know that thing could fly!"

As Black Eggman gains on them, he starts to fire his gun. Sonic is able to speed up but Tails gets close to Black Eggman as he makes a grab for the fox, almost catching him.

Tails: "Sonic!"

Sonic: "Tails!"

Sonic starts to slow down and drops back to meet up with Tails. He puts out his hand for Tails to grab.

Sonic: "Grab onto me!"

Tails grabs hold of Sonic's Hand and Hedgehog zooms off, taking the fox with him and far away from Black Eggman. From his sides, Black Eggman's Missile bays open and he fires a round of missiles farther ahead in the road. They hit, destroying a large section of the bridge. With Tails help, Sonic is able to stop on time and they fall to the ground, tired.

Sonic: "We're Safe!"

Just then the large shadow of Black Eggman appears above them and he aims his gun at them.

Black Eggman: "Don't think you're yet. Neither of you can swim, so you'll both drown the ocean below."

He fires a few rounds at Sonic & Tails, they dodge but fall down the large hole into the deep ocean below. Or so it seems, unknown to Black Eggman, Sonic and Tails had grabbed hold of some hanging wire work and pretend they are drowning.

Sonic: "I can't swim! Gurgle, gurgle, gurgle..."

Black Eggman: "I've finally gotten you out of the way!"

Black Eggman walks off, seemingly believing that Sonic and Tails are dead.

Tails: "That worked pretty well"

Sonic: "Yeah, let's go!"

A flash and crack of lighting sends Tails hugging onto Sonic yet again.

Sonic: "Why me?"

Back on ground level, Sonic & Tails return to their journey to Eggmanland, believing that

Black Eggman: "CrashCrackBoom!"

Tails, believing what he heard was lighting, jumps up, only to realize what has really happened.

Tails: "Oops!"

Black Eggman: "You fool! Did you really think I'd fall for trick like that? Take this!"

From a launcher on his back, Black Eggman shoots some kind of thick glue at Sonic and Tails, trying to trap them for the attack. A bit lands on Sonic's head.

Sonic: "What is this stuff?"

As the pair try to dodge the glue as best as possible, a Flash of lighting scares Tails and he is hit by the glue and is stuck on to a near by fence.

Tails: "Sonic!"

Hearing the noise from his friend, Sonic turns round.

Sonic: "Tails!"

Black Eggman: "Now it's time for this!"

Making use of the situation, Black Eggman fires off another round of missiles, chasing Sonic. He spins off into the distance but can't dodge the incoming missiles. In the distances, they exploded, catching the attention of Knuckles, who is digging in the ground near by. He goes to investigate while Black Eggman, believing he has now defeated Sonic, turns his attention to Tails

Black Eggman: "Now I just have to finish you off."

Tails: "There's no way those missile could've gotten rid of Sonic so easily!"

A spark of light in the distances, from the location where Sonic last was, catches the attention of the helpless fox.

Tails: "I told you!"

Sonic appears, riding on the back of the last of Black Eggman's missile attack, the Missile is heading back to it's owner at great speed.

Sonic: "It's coming back at you, Black Eggman!"

Sonic jumps off just in time as the missile hits it's target in a huge explosion. When the smoke dies down, Tails opens it's eyes to see Sonic, when he notices something.

Tails: "Sonic!"

Sonic notices his Feet are now stuck on some of the glue. Rain starts to pour down as the dark shape of Black Eggman returns, clearly damaged from the last attack. With Each Foot step, the Ruins sink more into the ocean and Sonic is dragged down with them.

Sonic: "Darn!"

Black Eggman: "You might have the fastest feet in the world but if you can't run just you normal Hedgehog you will make it to Eggmanland!"

Tails tries in vain to free himself from his glue prison but it is to no avail.

Tails: "Sonic, I'll Save you!"

Black Eggman has finished walking and now is above Sonic, he gets ready to fire his gun.

Black Eggman: "Try to run away from this!"

Just as Black Eggman is about to fire the final blast, a fast moving object shoots out of the ground and straight up, knocking Black Eggman over before appearing to help Tails out.

Tails: "Knuckles!"

The red echidna rips off large parts of the glue to free Tails.

Knuckles: "Hurry and Save Sonic!"

Tails falls to the ground and tries to fly, but notices he can't spin his tails around.

Tails: "Oh no! if my tails are stuck together, I can't fly!"

Knuckles tries to fight Black Eggman but has little impact other than a few dents. As Knuckles hit him, a large sheet of metal falls off and catches Tails eye.

Tails: "I've got it!"

Tails uses the Metal sheet like his Body board, and is able to free his tails by spinning them in the water. Black Eggman has more trouble to deal with as Knuckles goes for a close blow.

Black Eggman: "Where you?"

Tails finally reaches Sonic and tries to put him out of the still rising water by extending his hand

Sonic grabs on to the fox's hand and Tails hold grabs on with his other hand and pulls with all this might, but the glue just stays strong on Sonic's feet.

Tails: "Sonic, You can do it!"

Black Eggman carries on shooting at the echidna with his gun hand. As Knuckles is running trying to dodge what he can, he is caught by the glue and gets trapped.

Knuckles: "Oh no!"

Black Eggman carries on shooting but nothing comes out of his gun's barrel.

Black Eggman: "I'm out of Ammo! You are lucky Aren't you? ~~Oh how~~ lucky enough!"

Black Eggman reaches out to grab Knuckles with his hand and holds him firming, slower squeezing. Tails is finally able to free Sonic and Hedgehog goes to the rescue of Knuckles, Sawing off Black Eggman's hand and freeing Knuckles. They both fall to the ground safely.

Sonic: "I owe you one, Knuckles!"

Knuckles: "Right back at you!"

Black Eggman: "It doesn't matter!"

With all the damage done to him and seeing that odds are against him, Black Eggman decides the best course of action is to run and fight another day. He starts up his jet engine and heads upwards.

Sonic: "You're running away? I'm not going to let you go, Black Eggman!"

Black Eggman: "Don't worry, we'll meet again"

Knuckles: "Grab onto me, Sonic!"

Sonic takes Knuckles hand as Knuckles jumps high up and throws Sonic farther to catch up with Black Eggman. He Spins though black Eggman and meets Tails on the other said. Tails grabs him for the final throw. Sonic goes into a Spin attack and slices

Black Eggman in half. It blows up and falls to the ground in pieces. Tails Holds Sonic, as they watch the sight from the air, quickly joined by Knuckles. He and Sonic congratulate each other. Meanwhile, below, the main Body of Black Eggman lands in the ocean and floats to the surface. The broken hatch opens and Eggman and Seira appear, unseen by anyone else.

Eggman: "Sonic's Ruined things again! He'd better enjoy this feeling now, because once he gets to Eggmanland, he'll have to fight something even worse than Black Eggman!"

Seira: "What do you mean, worse than Black Eggman? You're talking about yourself! You'd better keep your hands off my Sonic, or I'll never forgive you!"

The rain dies down and the city seems still. Sonic & Tails stand with Knuckles on the top of a building and get ready to carry on their mission.

Sonic: "Thanks for saving us there, Knuckles"

Knuckles: "Yeah, That's one more job that I'm not going to get paid for. Oh well, we've been friends for long enough. I guess I can just put this on your tab."

Tails: "So, will you return to Treasure hunting?"

Knuckles: "Of course! After all, that's what I live for!"

Though a gap in the cloudy sky, the sun starts to shine though. Knuckles puts on his glasses as the group watches the sun set in the sky.

Tails: "The Sun's already setting, We've got to hurry!"

As they look out over the city, the ground shakes and the many lights of the city start to glow bright. They can now see the electric lights of Eggmanland, forming the clear image of its creator, Eggman.

Knuckles: "What is that thing?"

Tails: "That's Eggmanland!"

Sonic: "Incredible!"

Sonic looks back to Knuckles and smiles.

Sonic: "I hope we see you again, Knuckles!"

He quickly picks up speed and rushes off toward Eggmanland.

Knuckles: "See you"

Tails: "See you Later!"

Knuckles just nods as Tails flies off too after Sonic. After a little while of heading towards Eggmanland, While Tails is flying and Sonic jumps from Building to Building, they notice Knuckles gliding along and catching up with them

Tails: "Knuckles!"

Knuckles: "Hey, I'd worry about you two if I sent you in alone!"

Knuckles heads in front of them and calls them to hurry up.

He gains speed and resumes the journey to Eggmanland.

Sonic: "Wait up, Knuckles"

Sonic speeds up to catch him, never liking to be beaten in a race. He is closely followed by his young fox friend and the trio head off to Eggmanland and the awaiting Egg Generator.
